MAIL CALL

Don't forget our E-mail address: TOD.Alumni@bigfoot.com

Neil Adler: Membership renewal. Neil's now a lifetime member.

George Antonio: Membership renewal. George is now also a lifetime member.

Joe Amerena, Robert Boster, Albert Genzler, Marvin Hopkins, Tedd Martin, John Miner, Wayne Reese and Paul Sears: Membership renewal. Editors Note: Thank You All, we need and appreciate your support.

Leroy Jones: Membership renewal. Here is my dues for another year. I don't subscribe to a longer time because when you are 84, a one-year term may be a life membership. Editors Note: Come on Leroy, I'll bet you will say the same thing when you're 104.

Jeff Rekoske: via E-mail: I served at TOD in the early 90's. I came across your email address when looking up AFTAC Alumni on the internet. Could you send me information about the West Coast AFTAC Alumni Association? I also work with three former TOD members and I'm sure they would be interested also. Thanks, Jeff Rekoske, jeff.rekoske@ftb.ca.gov. Editors Note: Sent Jeff an application and tuned him in to our new website.

Bob Fitzgerald: via E-mail: I was just contacted by a fellow who I haven't heard from in years (more than thirty). He was at Det 202 68-70 & MCL 70-71. He lives back east but is interested in staying in touch with the AFTAC Alumni and the West Coast Chapter. He is registered with the locator at the Florida Chapter, which is how he found me. Would you please send him a courtest copy of the last Depot Fallout newsletter? Mail it to: William (Bill) R. Roehrig, 45 Canterbury Rd, Philipsburg, NJ 08865, E-mail: wrr@fast.net. Editors Note: Will do better than that, I'll send him a copy of this edition and our Website information.

CORRECTION CORRECTION CORRECTION

Please ignore the articl in the Florida Chapter's September 2003 edition of the POST-MONITOR regarding a Winter Social on Nov 16th. They mistakenly took that info from our Oct 2002 newsletter.
